Next is education; providing safety education and training is a critical element.

The common structure will ensure that the new standard is broadly aligned to the forthcoming revisions of ISO 9001 and ISO 14001 thus helping those who are implementing multiple management systems.

us this is unlikely to be the case.

saying something like I know what I need to do .

The very nature of these symptoms makes them feel isolated, even abandoned, so they are in the worst possible place to draw support when it s most needed, share the problem and workload, and often appear cold, detached and even angry so that they seem less approachable than normal.

Housekeeping is a highly visible safety marker.

The new standard is designed to replace the widely-used OHSAS 18001 whilst also taking into account other key documents and discussion points from around the world.

The companies that adopt this approach go beyond simply dictating rules and providing protective equipment.

Through tracking, analysis and feedback, they can identify the factors that impact safety product utilisation and performance spending more time on leadership and less time on enforcement.

It is not an issue that can be ignored especially when it can literally mean life and death for many.
